

HANDLE[®] Autism Spectrum Course

November 6th

This course introduces the late Judith Bluestone's extraordinary insights into autism, and how her work led to international multiple awards. Families, educators and health professionals can immediately apply their new HANDLE knowledge at home, work and in their educational settings.

“Please, mom,
Hear what I am doing;
See what I am saying.”

Carolyn Hunsinger

HANDLE

www.handle.org

Gets beyond the labels

Is an holistic, non-drug approach

Assists the brain to create efficient pathways

Includes movement

Is a systems approach

Is non-judgmental

Honors Gentle Enhancement[®]

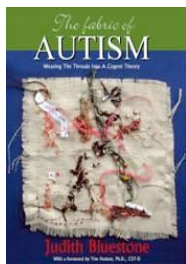

Free Pre- course info sessions on Oct 2nd at Tantallon Library and Oct 6th Cole Harbour Library

Catherine Stingley, one of only three worldwide HANDLE instructors of the advanced level, will travel from Alaska to teach this course, based on Bluestone's book "The Fabric of Autism". Cathy worked very closely with Bluestone.

Location: Halifax area. Venue to be determined.

Hours: 9:30 am to 5:30 pm

Price: $ 170. Reductions are offered for early signup, and group sign ups.

For Info contact

nancyceulemans@yahoo.co.uk 403 6073